THE COMMITTEE WILL CONFER

Action on a Communication from the Sons of the Revolution Advocating Consolidation-The Suggestion Was Received with Favor-Effort to Limit the Terms of the President and Vice President.

The District of Columbia Sons of the American Revolution held an important meeting last night in the red parlor at the Ethitt House. Among these matters were the adoption of an amendment to the constitution and the passage of a resolution looking to the consolidation of this organization with the Society of the Sons of the Revolution.

A meeting of the board of management of the Bons of the American Revolution was held in the afternoon, the business transacted at which was reported to the meeting last night, which was presided over by Dr. J. Brown Goode, Mr. Francis E. Storm being secretary.

The proceedings were opened with prayer by the Rev. Dr. Childs, after which the following proposed amendment to Article 3 of the constitution, as Section 5, was read; "Soms of Revolutionary soldiers, who are regularly accepted by the board of management upon the recommendation of the proper committees, may be made honorary members of the society without the pay-This was briefly discussed and adonted

TO MARK THE SPOT.

An interesting communication from the Maryland Society, S. A. Second Army Corps Association Gives Its Third Banquet.

ENJOYABLE ANNUAL REUNION

Distinguished Guests Present, Eloquent Responses to Tonsts, Abundance of Good Cheer-Tables Decorated with Roses from White House Conservatory-Col. John Hancock in Attendance.

The Second Army Corps Association, composed of grizzled Union veterans of the civil war, whose pleasure and pride it is to name as their old commander, Gen. W. S Hancock, "the superb," gave its third annual banquetlast night at the Hotel Page.

The inauspicious weather prevented many from attending, but there were many more than enough to establish headquarters. supply the picket lines, and maintain the dignity and discipline of the camp.

There were two business sessions. At the first, the minutes of the previous meeting were read, Comrades John Joy Edson, A. D. Swigert, and W. M. Keefer were elected to membership, and it was ordered that a committee of three be appointed-to consist of Comrades O'Driscoll, Seville. and Jones-to confer with the members of the Third Army Corps Association to arrange, if agreeable, for a joint banquet

At the second meeting it required more time to discuss details, but the details were not so dry, and the business, strictly adhered to for several hours, consisted principally in disposing of the viands with an intellectual display as a finale. ENTERED IN DOUBLE COLUMN.

A pleasant incident was the enflusiastic reception given to Col. John Hancock, a brother of the general, who served through the war as a member of his staff. Capt. C. F. Transport and G. Hancock, in its C. E. Troutman gave Col. Hancock an in-troduction and requested him to stand up and give the boys a chance to "count him." He blushingly complied.

HARD WORK FOR TOUTS.

Two Alexander Island Habitues Will A pair of Alexander Island outlaw race track characters were given good doses of police court justice yesterday, and to-day they are doing a solid day's work with pick and shovel in the chain gang. Judge Kimball, in common with other good citizens, believes that the outlaw track is a moral plague spot, which attracts to this city human birds of prey. His sentences, therefore, were in keeping with his belief. The first prisoner was Edward J. Foster, a flashily dressed fellow, and the charge against him was vagrancy and suspicion. Policeman Hamilton found him loitering

In the police court he told Judge Kimball he was from New York and had been attracted here by the racing at Alexander Island. He gave his occupation as "card writer at the track."

"If you do what you say," remarked his honor, "you are a tough, and can give security in the sum of $50 or go to the workhouse for fifteen days."

The next prisoner was William Smith, who blandly told the court he had followed the races for twelve years.

"That shows what kind of a man you are," said the court.

DOC BIRCH AN EASY WINNER

Beats Dillon J. in the Prettiest Race of the Day.

Clansman Gallops in to the Consternation of the Talent-But Things Were Evened Up on Juliet.

The racing fraternity seem to tire of waiting for clear weather, the attendance being much larger than Monday's or Tuesday's. Just before the first race Old Sol made a bluff of coming out, but thought better of it and retired in favor of the rain, which soon commenced to fall and came down in torrents throughout the afternoon. Eleven bookies decided to try and down the talent and succeeded very well, only two favorites landing the money. All of the finishes were tame, with the possible exception of the last race. The worst upset of the day occurred in the last event at six and a half furlongs. There were only four carded to go, and of these Diffon J. opened an even money favorte with Belle Blackburn, and His Grace having next call at twos. Doe Birch was the outsider at 4 to 1. The talent got down on Dillon J. to a man, playing him cown on Dilion 3, to a man, playing him as if it were all over but the shouting, and forcing his price to 1 to 2. Belle Blackburn steadily receded, going to the post at 8 to 1, with the other two at fives.

At the third break they were sent off in beautiful order. Ham immediately rushed the favorite to the front, and come down the back stratch was two going down the back stretch was two going down the back stretch was two lengths to the good of Birch, with the other two trailing. The latter was all but out at this juncture, and could not stand a drive. Doe Birch winning a clever race by an open length, Dillon J. second two before His Grace, third.

In the opening event Brooston was selected to carry the money, opening at 7 to 5, with Pottowattomic having second call at threes. Of the others John P. and Kazan were most played, they both opening at 4 to 1. The balance of the field was not much funcied, all being at lang odds. At the close 8 to 5 could be had against Brotston, while John P. and Pottowattomic were at threes and twos respectively.

The falent had picked this race one, two, three, Morris landing the favorite two tengths to the good of the second choice, Pottowattonie, who beat John P. a length for third money. On the strength of his good race Satur-
